

Dean W. Boorman

Dean Boorman has worked in the field of Management of Information Technology (IT) for eighteen years. He has held roles in Functional Management, Management Consulting, Software Sales, Enterprise Applications, and Global Infrastructure. He has held leadership positions in small private companies, medium sized public companies and the Fortune 500.

He is a thought leader that builds teams that produce business value through his vast global experience and individual versatility. He possesses a proven track record of excellence in global interpersonal communications at all levels of an organization that span the globe.

He has worked in Life Sciences sector for over 6 years with multiple multinational initiatives in the IT area. His passion is leading teams to bring about high value, repeatable and quality products and services. He has been called a breakthrough leader in turning around teams or programs that are underperforming and have a significant impact on the bottom line of the company.

His experiences in the Financial Services sector are in different areas of IT infrastructure and applications delivery; demonstrating a depth of knowledge from Customer Relationship Management through Banking Operations.

He has first hand experiences in banking conversions within cooperative, commercial and retail banking IT systems. He has also designed, delivered and supported infrastructure in banks, insurance companies and real estate mortgage processing operations with high transactional demands and availability requirements.

He is a member in good standing with the Project Management Institute (PMI) and has been connected with PMI since 1995. He is certified in ITIL, Lean Sigma and holds a PMP from PMI. Presently, he is volunteering as treasure of a Boy Scout Troop. He is an experienced as functional group leader, program manager, and entrepreneur. He holds degrees from University of Minnesota and a Masters in Business Administration (MBA) from Capella University.